XI. Numb. 10.

THE OBSERVATOR.

...siderations on the Toleration propos'd for the Episcopal Clergy and the English Liturgy ...land.

...rom Wednesday, January 30. to Saturday, February 2. 1712.

Since the Project for a Toleration to the Episcopal Party in Scotland is the great Subject of Discourse at present, and that ...e they had no different Form of Wor... ...at Country from the Presbyterians, I ...know their distinguishing Character, ... my Country Neighbours may be the ...le to judge of the Expediency of such a ...ion, and what may be the real Design of ...who argue so much for it without

...here are Distinctions to be us'd in that ...Roger; for it was and is with them as ...England; some were moderate, and o...lent: Therefore we must take the di...shing Character of the Men from the pub... ...s of the governing Party when the Esta... ...ent was in their Hands; and as these ...te to Politicks, Religion and Modera... ...shall give you the Character of the go... ...g and by consequence of the major Part of ...opalians there, from their publick Acts, ...ction to these Three Heads.

1. As to Politicks: They not only ... to an Act, 'That it was unlawful for ... to rise in Arms on any Pretence ...ever against the King, or those having ...mission; as appears by the 2d Act of ...ssion of King Charles II.'s first Parlia... ...but likewise concurr'd to another Act ...was the 5th of that same Session, 'Re... ...ing such a Declaration from all Persons in ...ick Trust.' And by Parl. II. Sess 2. Act VII. ...empower'd the Privy Council to demand ... of the same Tenure from all they ...t fit, on pain of Confiscation in case of ...' So that here was Unlimited Non... ...e establish'd, and universally impos'd ...witness, contrary to the known Consti... ...f Scotland, and to the 25th Art. of the ...on of Faith, enacted in 1560. when the ...tion was first establish'd, 'Which made ...nce only unlawful when the Magistrate ...t which was his Duty, in which case he ...'s Vicegerent.

...e 7th Act of that Session, 'They give his ...y a Power to continue the Acts against ...nticles, and for imposing the above... ...on'd Declaration beyond the Time limi... ...y Parliament; which was in effect to ...im with the sole Legislative Power; a ...before that time unheard of in Scotland, ...terly subversive of the Constitution and ...of Parliament.

...he 2d Act of the 3d Parliament of Cha. II. ...s made Treason to write, speak, or act ...other manner of way against the Lineal ...ssion to the Crown by Proximity of ...; and declar'd, That no difference in 'Religion, nor no Law, nor Act of Parliament, 'made or to be made, can alter or divert the Right 'of Succession and Lineal Descent of the Crown 'to the nearest and lawful Heirs. Which was directly against the Coronation Oath establish'd by the Authority of King James VI. and his Parliament. So that the Grand Security for the Protestant Religion was here given up by the Scots Episcopal Party in favour of the Duke of York, or any other Popish Successor.

By the 2d Act of King James the VIIth's Parliament, they declar'd to the World, 'That 'they abhor and detest all Principles and Posi- 'tions which are contrary or derogatory to the 'King's Sacred, Supreme, ABSOLUTE 'POWER AND AUTHORITY; which none, 'whether Persons or collective Bodies, can 'participate of, any manner of way, or upon 'any pretext, but in Dependance on him, and 'Commission from him: And there likewise 'they assert the just and legal Succession of the 'Sacred Line, as unalterable by any Human 'Jurisdiction. They promis'd him entire Obedi- 'ence without Reserve, and annex'd the Excise to 'the Crown in order to support this Absolute 'Power.

Countrym. Bless me, Master, these are Politicks indeed! At this rate the governing Episcopal Party in Scotland made themselves and all the rest of the Subjects, absolute Slaves to the King's Will and Pleasure.

Obs. They did so, Roger; and he made use of this Power accordingly, 'By taking upon him 'to annul all the Laws establishing the Prote- 'stant Religion by Proclamation, wherein he 'asserted his Absolute Power.

Countrym. I think he serv'd them very right, Master; for since the Scots Episcopal Party had laid their Ears to the Posts of his Doors in order to make themselves his Slaves for ever, the King could not well be blam'd for driving the Nail as far as 'twould go. But pray how did the Party take it, when they saw him make such a Use of his Power?

Obs. I told you before, Roger, that all the Party was not so mad; therefore the moderate Men of their Clergy and Laity did not like those things, and several of both were turn'd out for not complying with those Courses: But the governing Part went as far as the King would have them; and when they heard of the Prince of Orange's Design to rescue us from Slavery and Popery, all the Scots Bishops join'd in an Address to the late King James, 'Declaring their 'Abhorrence of the Prince's Attempt, asserting 'their Allegiance, according to the Slavish Laws 'abovemention'd, to be an Essential Part of their 'Religion, and praying that his Majesty might 'trample upon the Necks of his Enemies, among whom her present Majesty was then reckon'd, one,

one, becauſe ſhe left her Father's Court, and joyn'd with thoſe who took Arms againſt his Popiſh and Arbitrary Meaſures. This Addreſs is to be ſeen in the London Gazette, November 10. 1688.

Countrym. What are theſe the Men then, that' a Toleration in Scotland is ſo violently pleaded for in manifeſt Violation of the Union Act Maſter?

Obſ. Yes, Roger, theſe are the Men, for the moderate Epiſcopal Laity dont withdraw from the Eſtabliſh'd Worſhip in Scotland, and above a Hundred of the beſt of their Clergy, are ſtill poſſeſs'd by Law of Churches and Benefices upon taking the Oaths to the Government, without being oblig'd to ſubmit to Presbytery. But theſe Men are as much the Object of the Factions Hatred, as the profeſs'd Presbyterians, and they ſet up their Separate Meetings with the Engliſh Liturgy in thoſe Men's Pariſhes, as well as elſewhere; ſo that it is not Epiſcopal Orders which the Faction has any Regard to, but it is their apparent Deſign to involve that Country in Trouble and Confuſion, by procuring, if poſſible, a Breach of the Union Act, which, as I told you before, is the only Act that eſtabliſhes the Hanover Succeſſion in Scotland.

Countrym. I plainly perceive now, Maſter, that the Clamours of the Faction againſt the Church of Scotland as Perſecutors, is very ill-founded, for that's Moderation with a Witneſs, to allow above a Hundred Epiſcopal Miniſters to enjoy their Churches and Benefices without Conformity to the preſent Eſtabliſhment, and it is ſtill a greater Proof of Moderation, that the Presbyterians did never preſs in King William's Reign, to have the Epiſcopal Laity excluded from places of Power and Truſt in that Country, ſince the open Rebellion of the chief of the Party under the Lord Dundee, &c. and their frequent Plots, gave the Scots Presbyterians ſo fair a Handle to preſs for ſuch a Teſt Act; ſo that for my part, I can't imagine that thoſe People who urge the propoſed Toleration, do aim at any thing leſs than the Total Subverſion of the Scots Conſtitution both in Church and State.

Obſ. You have very good Reaſon for your Preſumption, Roger, ſince the Faction is againſt putting the Toleration in Scotland and England upon an equal Foot, and deny to have the ſame Incapacity of publick Poſts put upon the Diſſenters there as here, to have the Scots Epiſcopal Clergy reſtrain'd from Solemnizing Marriages, as are the Engliſh Diſſenters, and refuſe to Sign the Doctrinal Articles of the Church of Scotland, as the Diſſenters do thoſe of the Church of England. This is ſuch an evident proof of their Partiality and ill Deſigns, as ſtares every Man in the Face. But there is one thing more, Roger, which ought to be inſiſted on, in caſe a Toleration be thought requiſite in Scotland, notwithſtanding what is to be ſaid againſt it from the Union Act; and that is, that as every Man who pretends to have a Vote in calling a Miniſter of the Eſtabliſh'd Church there, is obliged to take the Oath of Allegiance, and to declare that he ſincerely believes her Majeſty to be Queen de Jure, as well de Facto, and that the Pretended Prince of Scotland, commonly call'd, The Pretended Prince of Wales, has no manner of right to the Crown. Thoſe who pretend to give a Call to any Epiſcopal Miniſter to ſet up a Meeting Houſe, ought to be oblig'd to take the ſame Oath, and make the ſame Declaration as to the Queen's Ti againſt the Pretenders Claim, otherwiſe Jacobites in Scotland will concur in givin to the Epiſcopal Clergy to ſet up Meet purpoſe to embroil the Eſtabliſh'd and to erect ſo many Nurſerys of on againſt her Majeſty, and the Hano ceſſion.

Countrym. Why truly Maſter, if the on refuſe ſuch a Clauſe, it will be Declaration of their Traiterous Intentio I doubt not but our Legiſlature will it as ſuch, and reject the Project.

Obſ. I hope ſo too, Roger; but there thing more to be ſaid as to an Obligatio the Epiſcopal Clergy that ſhall be To viz. That they ſhall be not only oblig'd the ſaid Oath, and make the ſaid Declar gainſt that Knaviſh diſtinction of de Fa de Jure, but likewiſe to pray for her Ma Name, as our only rightful and lawfu reign, and likewiſe to pray for her Roya neſs Princeſs Sophia, Electreſs Dow Hanover, that they may not as hith their Conventicles impoſe upon the by praying for the Sovereign in gener which they mean the Pretender, or Queen, by whom they mean his ſuppo ther, and for Princeſs Sophia, by who intend his alledg'd Siſter. But more things another time.
